

Index

---

- American Livestock Breeds Conservancy (ALBC) 34
- Animal mortality reduction
  - causes 77
  - chickens 77
  - labour and feeding costs 76
  - per-animal productivity 76
- Animal nutrition
  - deficient nutrition 77
  - divisions 77
  - dry season
    - balanced feed 105
    - cheap side-product 80
    - cottonseed 105
    - elephant/Napier grass 103, 105
    - feeder troughs 80
    - green forage 80
    - hay making 80
    - kitchen leftovers 79–80
    - local feeding innovations and traditions 79
    - lucerne, irrigation 103
    - silage 105
    - straw storage and feeding 79
    - urea 105
  - mineral supply
    - salt 106
    - vitamins 106
  - objectives and recommendations 78
  - salt and minerals
    - kitchen salt 80
    - preparation, mineral block 80–81
- Artificial insemination (AI), cattle
  - advantages 123
  - disadvantages 123
  - milk yield 167
  - requirements 122–123
- BCPs see Bio-cultural Community Protocols
- Bee-keeping, action research 30
- Bio-cultural Community Protocols (BCPs)
  - animal genetic resources management 4–5
  - draft Protocol 155
  - feedback workshop 156–157
  - government role, breeders 157
  - information, herders 155–156
  - objective 155
  - participatory documentation 155
  - Samburu Red Maasai sheep see Samburu Red Maasai sheep and shepherds
- Breeding and selection
  - divisions 93
  - management
    - artificial insemination 122–123
    - inbreeding prevention 95–96, 122
  - objectives and recommendations 93
  - use and choice
    - exotic breeds 121–122
    - genetic improvement 95, 119–121
    - Gir cows, Brazil 95
    - Raika pastoralists 94
    - 'unproductive' local breeds, elements 94–95
- Bureau for Exchange and Distribution of information on mini-livestock (BEDIM) 34

- Community Animal Health Workers (CAHW) 88
- Community of Practice for Pro-Poor Livestock Development (CoP-PPLD) 33
- DAD-IS see Domestic Animal Diversity Information System
- Dairy development trap, Dutch farming
- 'blanket' recommendations
    - Holstein Friesian cow 167
    - milk yield 167
  - consumer concern 170–171
  - environment and surpluses
    - average fertilizer application 168
    - high production levels 168
    - low price and high status, mineral fertilizers 167, 168
  - farm income diversification 173, 174
  - high protein levels 170
  - intensification 166
  - mineral efficiency, soil fertility and cost reduction
    - organic farming 174
    - soil-plant-animal-manure approach 174
  - N and P loss 169, 170
  - policies, 1950 and 1970
    - average milk production 166–167
    - conductive 167
    - government investments 166
  - 'restrictive' policy measures
    - manure control 168–169
    - manure injection 169
    - milk-quoting system 168
    - mineral bookkeeping system 169
  - scale enlargement and technical efficiency
    - barn types 172
    - mega-barns 171
    - milking manure cleaning robot 172
  - stop farming and farm abroad 171
  - traditional elements, sustainable farming
    - crop and livestock farms 178
    - farmers work and income 176
    - initiatives and knowledge 175
    - 100,000-l cow 176
    - local and dual-purpose breeds 177–178
    - medicinal plants 178
    - and natural environment 177
    - single commodity product 176
    - soil-plant-animal-manure cycle 175–176
    - urban-rural linkages 177
- Deccani sheep breed
- ANTHRA's work 148
  - birth weights 150
  - breed competition 150
  - breeding ram, selection 149
  - decrease, breed
    - coarse wool market collapse 148
    - geographical spread 148
  - description 147
  - extreme temperatures 147
  - traditional management ways 149
  - wool
    - shearing 150
    - spinning and weaving 148
- Developmental approaches
- agricultural policies and curricula 14
  - animal productivity paradigm
    - high-input livestock production systems 7, 9
    - social and environmental costs 9
  - arguments, farmer groups 7, 8
  - causes, lack of impact
    - animal species, poor 12
    - changing production systems 10
    - communal livestock projects 11
    - disease control depopulation schemes 12
    - exotic breeds 11–12
    - micro-credit 12
    - over-ambitious project objectives 10
    - power differences, managing funds 11
    - practical experience 11
    - social and cultural sensitivity 10
    - top-down methodologies 10
    - women, not including 10
  - climate change and food security call
    - agro-ecological farming and sustainable land management 13–14
    - mixed smallholders systems 14
    - shifting rainfall patterns 13
    - sustainable agriculture 13
  - farm efficiency and integrated farming paradigm
    - FAO statistics 9
    - soil fertility 9
  - innovative farmers
    - animal products, global markets 15
    - offering leafy branches, South African farmer 15–16
    - raised grass baskets 16
  - intensive livestock, developed countries
    - dairy farmers 19–21
    - dustbowl, US plains 17
    - Dutch dairy farmers 18
    - organic farming 18
    - soil-plant-animal cycle 18, 19
  - male and female farmers 9
  - small-holder mixed-farming system 7

- successful field-level organizations
  - fleece improvement programme, local sheep 17
  - local salt-licks, promotion 18
  - service providers 15
  - women, Aseel chicken breed 18
- types 14–15
- Domestic Animal Diversity Information System (DAD-IS) 33
- Dorper sheep breeds 152–153

- East Africa Dairy Development (EADD) programme 159, 160
- ELD see Endogenous livestock development
- Endogenous livestock development (ELD)
  - action research methodology
    - bee-keeping 30
    - ethno-veterinary medicine 29–30
    - Handing Over the Stick* 29, 31
    - participatory innovation development 29
- ALBC see American Livestock Breeds Conservancy
- BEDIM 34
- biodiversity
  - genetic diversity protection 28
  - local breeds 27–28
  - modern food production 27
- community animal health worker, training
  - AHTCS 31
  - definition 31
  - 'paraveterinarians' 31
- community, resource constraints 28
- CoP-PPLD 33
- DAD-IS 33
- description 26
- farmers and supporting
  - organizations 25–26
- farmers' voice 26
- Heifer International 33
- integrated agricultural systems
  - animals 23
  - cultural identity 23, 24
  - human-livestock relationships 24
  - rural communities 23
- internal and external development
  - approaches 26
- labelling, ecological animal husbandry 32–33
- LEGS see Livestock Emergency Guidelines and Standards
- livestock keepers rights, BCP 31–32
- local communities empowerment 25
- LPP 33
- materialistic bias 24
- network 33

- NGO deputy director's voice 27
- 'people-centred' 25
  - in practice
    - environmental friendly and economic sense 26
    - joint learning 26
    - livestock keepers 26
    - people-centred approach 27
- SAVES 34
- smallstock, development 34
- VSF 34

- Ethno-veterinary medicine, tropical
  - agricultural production
    - animal genetic resources 165
    - curricula and education 164
    - ethno-animal husbandry 164–165
    - undergraduate programme 165
    - University of Chiapas, Mexico 164
- Extensive land use
  - and high input 39–40, 41
  - and low-input 37–38, 42

- Farmer field school 140
- Feedlots 39

- 'Garbage Dreams' 143–144
- Give Ye Them to Eat (GYTTE) 68
- 'Green and blue services' 177
- GYTTE see Give Ye Them to Eat

- Heifer International
  - description 33
  - East Africa 134
  - food security 28
  - integrated farming system 29
  - micro-credit loan 61
  - sustainable livelihood, Kenya see Sustainable livelihood, Heifer methodology
- Human health, low-input family animal husbandry
  - advantages
    - agricultural production and farm efficiency 50
    - emotional and spiritual comfort 51
    - food, family 50
    - household organic waste 50–51
    - income possibilities 50
    - physical protection 51
  - disadvantages
    - medicinal residues, milk and meat 51
    - social problems and hygiene 51
    - zoonoses 51

- IEZ see Institute for Ethnobotany and Zoopharmacognosy
- Infectious diseases
- animal health services
    - CAHW training 88
    - commercial medicines 113–114
    - community-based animal health workers 112–113
    - conventional professional 113
    - ethno-veterinary practices 86–87, 111–112
    - One Health/One Medicine 114–115
    - synergy, traditional and modern remedies 87–88
    - zoonosis, awareness 88–89
  - objectives and recommendations 112
  - vaccination
    - high animal mortality 89
    - law 89–90
- Institute for Ethnobotany and Zoopharmacognosy (IEZ) 178
- Intensive land use
- and high input 38–39, 40
  - and low-input 37, 41
- Land grabbing 4
- League of Pastoral Peoples (LPP) 33
- LEGS see Livestock Emergency Guidelines and Standards
- Livestock Emergency Guidelines and Standards (LEGS) 32
- 'Livestock Meltdown' 3
- Livestock Production Program (LPP) 34
- Livestock sector
- globalization, food systems 2
  - global meat production 1
  - one medicine approach 5–6
  - pressure, ecosystems
    - awareness 2
    - economic significance 1
    - social implications, structural changes 2
    - trends see Trends, livestock sector
- Longhorn Ankole cattle 152
- Low-input and diversified livestock keeping
- animal husbandry forms, Bolivia
    - bees 56
    - 'piggy bank pigs' 55
    - poultry 55–56
    - sheep 55
  - different species, same time
    - chicken and ducks, Cambodia 55
    - risk-spreading strategy 55
  - farmer and ethnoveterinary knowledge
    - local healers, Cameroon Ethnovet Council 58
    - western science 57
  - flexibility
    - purchase and sale 57–58
    - reduction, changes 58
  - human health risks 59
  - interdependence, crops and animal husbandry 57
  - limited formal attention 58
  - local breeds, predominant use
    - Chiapas sheep 56
    - efficiency 56
  - low investment and productivity
    - live animals number 54
    - mortality reduction 54
  - manual labour
    - herding animals 54
    - women and children 53
  - monetary market and technical service
    - diversified husbandry 56
    - monetary investments 57
  - non-traditional by-products
    - garment, wool 57
    - marketable crafts/medicinal purposes 56
  - poverty alleviation and food security
    - marginal conditions 55
    - minimal costs 54
  - urban livestock keeping 59
  - vicious cycle, poverty and small land holdings 58–59
- Low input small holder to more-specialized livestock keeping
- animal husbandry skills and nutrition, exotic breed 68
  - changing, reasons
    - personal, family/community changes 66–67
    - selected species 66
    - transition factors 66
  - dairy farm 67
  - exogenous breed, pig-raising 67–68
  - pig
    - breeds, Thailand 69
    - business 67
  - positive and negative results
    - dairy production 71–72
    - family level 71, 72
  - process, change
    - animal feeding 69
    - capital 69
    - shelter 69
  - purchase, animals
    - added value - value chain 70
    - professional organizations and associations 70
    - technical support 70
    - veterinary support and disease control 70

-
- risks
    - biodiversity and environment,
      - long-term effects 74
    - breeding difficulty 73
    - dependency and changes, market 73
    - exotic breeds 73–74
    - family level 72
    - financial 72
    - mortality, milk fever 73
    - reasons 72
    - technical support 72
    - unfamiliarity, new systems 73
    - selection, animal species 67
    - specialized dairy production 67, 68
  - LPP see League of Pastoral Peoples; Livestock Production Program
  - Markets
    - environmental effects
      - Mauritania 136
      - Somalia 135
    - livestock marketing and culture
      - empowering women 136
      - reciprocity economy 136
    - local poultry transportation,
      - Guatemala 130, 131
    - low-input and diversified
      - livestock keeping
        - interventions 133
      - niche marketing, local breeds 131–133
      - poverty alleviation and economic
        - development 131
      - recommendations 137–139
    - more specialized livestock keeping
      - access, distant markets 139
      - additional planning 140–142
      - farmer field schools 140
      - farmers groups 139
      - standards and products 139
    - and sustainability
      - Kyrgyzstan goats 137
      - Mauritania and Somalia 137
      - Mongolia and South Africa 137
      - poncho makers, Argentina 136–137
      - wool enterprise, India 136
    - wealth disparity 137, 138
    - women livestock keepers
      - Heifer International report 134
      - larger and smaller animals 133–134
      - membership, groups 134
      - micro-credit schemes 134
      - policies and regulations 135
      - value chains 134, 135
  - Millennium development goals
    - environmental sustainability 52
    - MDG 3, gender inequality reduction 52
    - MDG 6, HIV/AIDS 52
    - MDG 1, hunger and poverty
      - reduction 51–52
    - One Health/One Medicine approach 5–6
    - Optimization, low-input and diversified
      - smallholder
        - animal mortality reduction 76–77
        - breeding and selection 93–96
        - improved animal nutrition
          - community livestock development
            - projects 77
          - deficient nutrition 77
          - dry season nutrition 79–80
          - objectives 78
          - recommendation parts 77
          - salt and minerals 80–81
          - vitamins 81–82
          - wheel, animal well-being 78
        - infectious diseases control
          - animal health services 86–89
          - vaccination 89–90
        - parasite control see Parasite control
        - pasture and rangeland management
          - bush encroachment reduction
            - 84–85
          - communal grazing control 83
          - controlled grazing 82
          - fencing 84
          - objectives and recommendations 82
          - overgrazing 82
          - rotational grazing 84
          - traditional animal species 83
          - weed control 82
          - zero-grazing system 82–83
        - protection and housing 96–97
        - recommendations, local
          - circumstances 76
        - special care 97–99
        - water provision
          - access 85–86
          - quality 86
    - Overgrazing 82
    - Parasite control
      - divisions 91
      - external parasites
        - community control activities 93
        - ethno-veterinary treatments and
          - practices 93
        - natural resistance, local breeds 93
        - new animals, flock 118
        - resistance, commercial products 119
        - specialized systems 118
        - ticks 92

- Parasite control (continued)
- internal parasites
    - ethno-veterinary treatments 92
    - incidence, grazing and feeding areas 92
    - natural resistance, local breeds 91
    - new animals 117
    - pasture rotations and good-quality feeding 117
    - resistance, commercial products 117–118
    - treatments 117
    - young animals 92
  - objectives and recommendations 90, 91, 115, 116
- Pastoralism 27, 36–38, 135, 151, 156
- Pasture management
- controlled grazing 82
  - fertilization 108
  - milk and carry system 108
  - weed control 82, 108
  - zero-grazing system 82–83, 108
- People-centred livestock development see Endogenous livestock development
- Poverty, livestock-keeping systems
- diversified livestock keeping 44
  - household strategies
    - crop, livestock and forest production 45
  - non-agricultural activities and migration 45
  - risk-prone and climatically-unpredictable environments 44
- human health see Human health, low-input family animal husbandry
- low-input keeping 44
- millennium development goals
- environmental sustainability 52
  - MDG 3, gender inequality reduction 52
  - MDG 6, HIV/AIDS 52
  - MDG 1, hunger and poverty reduction 51–52
- negative effects
- goats 49, 50
  - overgrazing 49
  - slash and burn 49
- positive effects
- animal biodiversity 48–49
  - animals, energy 48
  - income source 48
  - by products 49
  - soil-fertility and organic matter 48
- risk minimization and diversification 45
- rural family member, Bolivia 43, 44
- smallholder, environment and climate ruminants 47
- small-scale mixed-production systems 48
- women and livestock development limitations 45–46
- strategies 46–47
- Production systems
- developed countries
    - hobby farming 41
    - large-scale animal production 40–41
    - nature management 42
    - ranching and feedlots 41
  - developing countries
    - (agro-)pastoralism 37–38
    - high-input specialized systems 37
    - large-scale animal production 38–39
    - poor people 36
    - ranching and feedlots 39
    - smallholder mixed-farming 37
- Protection and housing
- adverse weather
    - night shelters 97
    - shade and wind breaks 97
  - benefit 124
  - milking sheds 124
  - objectives and recommendations 123
  - predators, accidents and theft
    - brooding 97
    - first weeks, life 96–97
  - ventilation 124–125
  - zero grazing systems
    - advantages 125
    - 'cut-and-carry' 125
    - disadvantages 125, 126
    - practices 126
- Rabies 59
- Ramat Livestock Enterprises, Kenya 141–142
- Ranches
- beef 39
  - description 39
  - meat production 41
  - Zebu cattle 40
- Rangeland management
- bush encroachment, reduction 84–85
  - fencing off, grazing areas 84
  - grazing
    - communal control 83, 84
    - mob 108–109
    - rotational 84
    - traditional animal species 83
- Reciprocity economy 136
- Red Maasai sheep, Africa see Samburu Red Maasai sheep and shepherds
- Rubbish and pigs, Cairo see Swine flu control, Egypt

- Salt-licks 18
- Samburu Red Maasai sheep and shepherds
- BCPs
    - draft Protocol 155
    - feedback workshop 156–157
    - government role, breeders 157
    - information, herders 155–156
    - objective 155
    - participatory documentation 155
  - crossbreeds 151
  - disease resistance and high fertility 152
  - Dorper sheep breeds 152–153
  - drought 152
  - food security 151
  - gene pool 151
  - genetic capability 154
  - habitats 154
  - LIFE Network 153
  - Longhorn Ankole cattle 152
  - smallholder farmers 151
- SAVES see Society of Animal, Veterinary and Environmental Scientists
- Shepherds and black sheep of Deccan, India
- ANTHRA's work 148
  - breed competition 150
  - crop rearing 147
  - Deccani sheep breed 147–148
- Silanga Youth Group 140, 159
- Smallholder farming system
- marginalized and isolated areas 37
  - ploughing, Cambodia 38
  - women and children 37
- Smallholder more specialized
- livestock keeping
  - environmental and human health
    - impacts 64–65
  - farmer associations and cooperatives
    - affiliated families 64
    - Fulani pastoralists, Cameroon 64
    - trade union 63
  - formal attention 63
  - interdependence, crops and
    - raising animals
    - broilers, Nepal 64
    - feedstuffs 63
  - investing, higher earnings
    - income sources 61
    - monetary return 61
  - labour, family
    - men 60
    - zero-grazing dairy system 61
  - migration avoidance
    - income 62
    - micro-credits and animal
      - production 61
    - social disintegration, families 61–62
  - risks and flexibility
    - greater costs, inputs 63
    - high value, individual animal 64
    - roads, towns and markets 63
    - specialized breeds/crosses,
      - local breeds 62
    - uniformity, husbandry practices 62
    - zoonotic diseases 65
- Smallholder more specialized systems
- optimization
  - animal nutrition, improved
    - dry season 101–105
    - mineral supply 105–106
  - animal productivity and farm efficiency
    - mortality causes and low-input
      - loss 102
    - production per animal 101
    - local circumstances 101
- Society of Animal, Veterinary and Environmental Scientists (SAVES) 34
- Special care
- delivery
    - check, afterbirth 128
    - extra assistance 98, 127
    - feeding, colostrum 99, 128
    - milk fever 128
    - piglets 99
    - simple birthing pen 98–99
  - divisions 97
  - objectives and recommendations
    - 97, 98, 127
  - sick animals
    - disposal 98
    - isolation 98
    - mastitis control 127
    - treatment 98
- Sustainable livelihood, Heifer methodology
- capital asset change
    - financial 161
    - human 160–161
    - natural 162
    - physical 161–162
    - political 162–163
    - social 162
  - EADD 159, 160
  - income sources 159
  - Laban's family 159, 160
  - milk supply 160
  - Silanga Youth Group 159
  - YEDF 159
- Swine flu control, Egypt
- culling 144–145
  - 'Garbage Dreams' 143–144
  - goats and sheep 146
  - government regulations 145
  - income 145
  - Mokattam 143

- Swine flu control, Egypt (continued) multinational companies 145
 non-Muslim Zabaleen,
   Egypt 144, 145
 recycling 144
 rubbish collection 144
- 'The Future of Agriculture and our Food' 13
- 'The Livestock Revolution' 2, 39
- Totem symbols 23
- Trends, livestock sector average human food 3 climate change 2
 commercialization 3–4 disasters and emergencies 3
 ethno-veterinary medicine 5 expansion, rights-based approaches 4–5
 industrialization and globalization 2
 international trade 2
 land grabbing 4
 local animal breeds 3 multi-resistant microbe strains 5 private markets 3 privatization 3 public policies 3
 technological advances 2–3 uncontrolled market forces 4 virulent animal diseases 3
- Vétérinaires Sans Frontières (VSF) 34
- Water provision, low-input livestock keeping access animal's body weight 110 animal species, less water 85–86
   regular watering 85
   specialized systems 110
 objectives and recommendations 110
 quality 86, 110–111
- Wealth disparity 137, 138
- WiLD see Women in livestock development
- Women in Livestock Development (WiLD) limitations 45–46
 relationship, farming situation 45, 46
 strategies 46–47
- Women livestock keepers
 Heifer International report 134
 larger and smaller animals 133–134
 membership, groups 134
 micro-credit schemes 134
 policies and regulations 135
 value chains 134, 135
- Zero grazing systems
 feeding cow, Cambodia 69
 fodder crops
   advantages and disadvantages 125–126
   Napier grass 103–105
   practices 126
 goats 82–83
 grazing species 108
see also Protection and housing
- Zoonotic diseases 65, 89