

Panchamveda Organic Farm and Dairy Veda Manohar

ಪಂಚವೇದ

Towards ROOTS...

We have decided 10 years back to go back to our village

And

Practice agriculture, when we attain
50 years of age..

..We did the same.

Towards ROOTS...

- Yes,
- it was difficult to shift from our political and social background in Bangalore
- But ours decision was strong enough.
- Accordingly we shifted 9 years back to Guddadahatti village 250 km from Bangalore

Towards ROOTS...

- Our aim was to build an Organic farm with learning centre for those who interested in an organic way of living and farming.
- Our farm is situated in Chikkamaglore district the border of Bhadravathi and Tarikere Taluk

Towards Dairy...

- Obviously we followed the neighbour's way of cultivation initially.
- We cultivated sugarcane and paddy in open field. Banana as intercrop in the coconut plantation.
- But we didn't make the profit.
- The main expenditure goes to fertilisers, labours cost and cultivation equipment rentals
- Then we discussed with so many people and find the reason.
- Slowly we started organic farming, for this we need organic fertiliser.
- Then we started Dairy.

Towards organic..Dairy is an answer

- When we decided to start a dairy, naturally we make mind to adopt latest technology. Same time we thought of produce organic milk
- Yes, for organic farming, dairy is a essential part
- In the beginning we faced so many difficulties, every day we used to call Veterinary doctor and he was using heavy antibiotics to treat Cowes.
- This leads to other problems for us and cow also.

Experience..

- Past 8 years we are running a dairy
- Beginning it was restless work .
- We use to work 20 hours per day.
- lot of problems, like mastitis, foot rot, repeat breeding, for this we use to call veterinary doctors every time,

Experience..

- It will be more expensive and time consuming
- Then we thought of using alternative medicine .
- Started using Ethnoveterinary practices, Ayurveda and Homeopathy medicine

Learning Ethnoveterinary Practices (EVP) and veterinary Ayurveda..

EVP workshop at Panchamaveda on 17-08-2014 with Dr Punyamurthy and Dr Kumar

ಪಂಚಮವೈದ್ಯ

experience..

- we invited Ayurveda Doctors for work shop.
- Initially we felt preparation time is more compared to allopathic medicine.
- But once we started to use it was easy.

Experience with Ayurveda..

Now we are treating successfully for “mastitis, Foot Rot, Edema”.

More than 50 cows treated till now

Without any Antibiotics

Now no mastitis in our dairy may be one or two per year.

ಪ್ರಶಸ್ತಿ

Organic in true sense..

- Now we are free from Antibiotics residues
- Our milk is antibiotic, chemical and fertilizer free milk.. since more than 7 years.

Dairy experience..

- According to me dairy design is also important for successful dairy .
- In our dairy no walls, it is a open and partially shed.
- Plenty of air and light.
- Paddock facility to walk and drinking water when its required.
- SAILEGE is necessary as food stock.
- We are making regularly around 70 ton of SAILEGE
